

Dutch Prime Minister Jan Peter Balkenende visits

Press release | 16-05-2008

Prime Minister Jan Peter Balkenende, together with Minister of Foreign Affairs, will visit Washington, D.C. Thursday, June 5 to Sunday, June 8.

On Thursday, June 5, they will be received by President Bush at the White House. The visits will include the international political situation including developments in Afghanistan and cooperation between the United States and the Netherlands.

Subsequently, the Prime Minister will participate in the annual Bilderberg conference to be held in Chantilly, VA., USA.